

This year's VWMA State Conference will be held in Victoria's iconic Yarra Valley on July 31 to 1 August. Our conference will be bringing into sharp focus all things business, industry, community and government related on the topics of waste and resource recovery.

The VWMA invites you to attend our 2-day conference which will feature a very special presentation by the Victorian Minister for Energy, Environment and Climate Change (The Hon. Lily D'Ambrosio MP) presenting on the Victorian Government's waste and resource recovery agenda.

DAY 1 (31 July)

The conference will also feature an impressive lineup of panel discussions and presentations on:

- Insurance
- Stockpiling
- Environment Protection
- Rebranding and rebuilding public confidence
- Chain of responsibility
- The changing legal and contract environment
- Interactive displays of some of Bucher Municipal's new trucking fleet
- Heavy vehicle compliance and more

Organisations include:

CSIRO

EPA

Russell Kennedy Lawyers

RSM Group

Australian Packaging

Covenant Organisation

EPA and more

Join us after the Day 1 program concludes for networking drinks and a delicious dinner put on by Yarra Valley Lodge (accommodation is available at the site).

Day 2 (1 August)

This year's conference will also include a second day of sector focused workshops covering:

- The national energy market and reducing your energy costs
- Grants and funding opportunities (including support on how to apply)
- Waste to energy panel discussions and more
- Recycling
- Community engagement and education campaigns (including the new national recycling campaign)
- E-waste, infrastructure upgrades and more

Workshops will be delivered in a range of engaging and interactive formats and will feature:

- ANZRP
- PlanetArk
- DELWP
- SV
- APCO and others

The workshops will be of benefit for anyone working in the waste and resource recovery space in Victoria particularly those who: manage infrastructure, engage with community and business, Delivery waste management services to the commercial sector, anyone who manages energy expenditure.
